

John F. Burns is the retired Director of Legal Affairs Emeritus for Ohio University. He also served in various faculty capacities while at Ohio University including in the Patton College of Education, the Heritage College of Osteopathic Medicine, and the College of Business. He is an almost fifty year resident of Athens, Ohio. John has been an active OVST board member since 1973 and continues to be a major supporter of the organization.